

League 2000 Rd 7 results

A damp and misty night greeted the 76 riders who signed on for the 7th round of this years series, our 22nd year.

The conditions only allowed 11 PB's in the time trial round the biggest improvement going to India Maciver who reduced her time by 24 secs. The fastest three riders were Euan Sanderson 70 secs, Owen Newbury 75 secs and George Walker 76 secs.

A relative simple skills test (no see-saw) saw only 3 clear rounds including Daniel Thompson whose 32 secs saw him to victory. Lewis Anderson coming in 2nd with 38 secs ahead of Olly Diro Ejara's 42 secs. The road races once again provided some very close finishes. The 5 lap race a repeat of last weeks result with scratch man Euan Sanderson beating Oliver Gatenby into 2nd. George Walker finishing in 3rd place. Jake Davidson was a clear winner in the 4 lap event but a close sprint for 2nd place which saw Islay Wilson just edging out Daniel Shipton. 3 laps was another close affair with William Horlock winning the sprint ahead of David Carter in 2nd and Matthew Russell 3rd.

Luke Shipton was victorious in the 2 lap race edging out newcomer Megan Flood 2nd and Claudia Davies 3rd in a close fought battle. In the small lap race Leo Lucas Barker was a clear victor beating Carys Kelly into 2nd place with India Maciver finishing 3rd.

Remember in the overall it is the best 10 results from the rounds which count.
