

League 2000

The start of school holidays and very strong winds led to there being only 57 riders for round 9 of the series.

The wind caused problems for the skills test with the cones and bottles continually being blown around. However Daniel Thompson completed a clear round course in 29 secs with Oliver Gatenby and Finlay Smith equal 2nd in 35 secs.

The wind was against the riders in the finishes of the time trial and road races. Sam White went fastest in the TT with a time of 78 secs ahead of George Walker 79 secs with Oliver Gatenby and Cillian Lewis tying for 3rd in 80 secs. There were only 5 pb's with Robby Diro Ejara 6 second improvement being the best.

Oliver Gatenby came out on top in the closest finish of the night in the 5 Lap RR, but big praise goes to Lewis Anderson (U10) finishing 2nd in the sprint Daniel Thompson crossing the line 3rd. 4 lap event went to Jake Davidson who crossed the line ahead of Daniel Shipton 2nd and Olly Diro Ejara 3rd in another relatively close finish.

The wind blew the other races apart, 3 laps Jacob Brown was the victor with (my skills course helper) Riley Norton finishing 2nd and Charlie Hare 3rd.

The girls took the other 2 races Jasmine Grant 1st in the 2 lap race with Layton Bergerud 2nd and Naomi Green 3rd. The small lap event newcomer Lucy Quinn took the honours, India Maciver battling for 2nd ahead of Sophia Brown.

PLEASE NOTE

There are a number of riders who have started to rest their elbows on the handlebars during the races (watching too much TdF), this will not be allowed any rider spotted will be disqualified.

Please can last years trophy winners return them over the next 2 rounds Round 10 next Monday 29th see you then.
