

League 2000 Round 10

First of all

Niamh was discharged from hospital last night. Her neck is fine and her elbow and knee have been dressed. Thank you to everyone who helped, including the donations of clothing to keep her warm, and the mat for mum to sit on!

Niamh's accident meant that there were 55 riders for round 10, the weather was perfect to help the racing.

Matthew White was the conqueror of the skills course his time of 41secs just enough to beat Owen Newbury 42 secs and Lewis Anderson 43 secs.

14 PB's in the TT the biggest being Lucy Quinn's 26 sec margin, Owen Newbury's time of 72 secs. proved to be the fastest ahead of George Walker 76 secs. and Sam White 78 secs.

5 lap RR was a closely fought affair with Matthew White just holding off Cillian Lewis to take the spoils with Isabel Mayes a very close 3rd. Unfortunately for the 4 lap riders their race had to be stopped mid race for the arrival of the ambulance, however so that they weren't too disappointed the race was started again from scratch so they got to do 6 laps! Jake Davidson proved to be the strongest in taking the victory with Emma Carter and Sophie Quinn battling for 2nd and 3rd behind.

Ewan Whiting was victorious in the 3 lap event Rebecca Mayes crossing the line in 2nd place ahead of Olly Diro Ejara. 2 Laps went to George Davies who was a clear winner ahead of Naomi Green 2nd and Thomas Anderson 3rd. The girls took the honours in the small lap race Lucy Quinn a clear winner ahead of Robby Diro Ejara and Ben Green
