

League 2000 Round 11

The penultimate round of this years series saw the lowest turn out for around 3 years with only 53 riders. However the weather was in favour of the riders who produced some great racing.

New rider Malachy Wicks stormed to first place in the TT with a time of 69 secs. 2 faster than Owen Newbury's 71 secs with Sam White and Cillian Lewis equal 3rd with 78 secs. 11 riders produced pb's with India Maciver's improvement of 24 secs being the biggest.

The skills test was a sound victory for Cillian Lewis in 36 secs. with Daniel Thompson 47secs seeing him finish 2nd and Oliver Gatenby 51 secs 3rd.

The 5 lap RR was a victory for Oliver Gatenby who beat Daniel Thompson in a 2 up sprint, both these riders were at the front of the grid but worked extremely well together to avoid being caught, scratch man Malachy Wicks finishing 3rd. 4 laps provided a tight bunch finish with Alex Marr winning the sprint ahead of Finlay Smith in 2nd with Rosie Burgess 3rd.

Daniel Shipton was a clear victor in the 3 lap race with Olly Diro Ejara crossing the line 2nd ahead of Matthew Russell 3rd. 2 Laps another clear victory this time for George Davies with Claudia Davies out sprinting Luke Shipton for 2nd.

A win for the girls in the small lap event with Lucy Quinn in 1st place, Robby Diro Ejara 2nd and Joseph Davies 3rd.

Thanks to all those who have returned the trophies would greatly appreciate the remainder next Monday which is the last round.
