The Way of St Hild launch event
Sunday 8th March

Hartlepool Borough Council is delighted to invite you to join us on Sunday 8th March - International Women's Day - as we celebrate the launch of The Way of St Hild.

We have a number of events planned throughout the day and we would be delighted if you could join us for some or all of these.

We would be grateful if you could indicate by email which events you wish to join us for and whether you require assistance with transport between Hartlepool and Whitby and back again.
